A RUMOR was in circulation that a team had been drowned in the river on Sunday, but on enquiry no occurrence of the sort had happened. A horse belonging to J. S. McDermott went through the ice, in pretty deep water, but was got out all right.

ABOUT twenty settlers arrived on last train from Nebraska. The storm of Thursday somewhat disengaged them as they expected to be able to proceed at once to select their homesteads, but since the weather has turned warm, and cleared again, they are all satisfied that they have chosen a good district, and are busy putting their wagons together to start off. Five of these settlers intended to locate at Lacome, but not liking the appearance came through to Edmonton.

THE GUN CLUB had their first shoot on Saturday last. It is the intention to make the club into teams of four, for the coming season, and it was to take the five best shots at 10 singles, on Saturday as captains. It resulted in the following as captains of the different teams: Messrs. Turnbull, Robertson, Pratt, McNicol and Martin. On Saturday night a meeting was held, when the captains chose their teams. This way of dividing the club will no doubt cause good competition.

THE ANNUAL meeting of the St. Jean Baptiste society took place yesterday afternoon in the C. M. B. A. building. The following officers were elected: Hon. president, His Lordship Bishop Grandin; chaplain, Rev. Father Lamarchand; president, S. Larue; 1st vice-president, J. H. Gariepy; 2nd vice-president, J. G. Fairbanks; secretary, Wilfrid Gariepy; treasurer, J. H. Picard; councillors, Messrs. M. J. Chenier, F. Marceggi, N. Leclerc, G. Roy, A. Prince and H. Hetu. After the election, Mr. Roy, the retiring president, addressed the meeting.

JUST AS THE last edition of Thursday's BULLETIN was off the press, and the devil was fixing the engine for the night, an animal in the shape of a horse, came tumbling down the steps into the engine room in the basement. Now our boy is always satisfied that he is quite capable of looking after things in his own department, but when that horse entered in the abrupt manner in which he did, the boy came up another stairway looking as if he was not the only devil in the department. The rest of the staff were not certain if the boiler had exploded, or an unusual crowd rushing for the latest edition had in the rush broken down the doors. On investigation the animal belonging to Mr. Collins was found to be surveying his new surroundings with a wondering look in his eye. An effort was made to coax and drive him up the steps again, but after a feeble attempt and looking at the crowd awaiting him at the top, he decided not. Several suggestions were made; someone said grease a plank and slide him up, but a rope was secured, fastened around him, and with a pull all together he was landed on terra firma. The occurrence caused a large number to congregate near W. T. Henry's store, and he was sure it was a rush for boots and shoes, but later on the enquiry coming so often, he had to tell them he was not in the horse business.

R. SECORD has purchased $475 worth of fur since last issue.

H. Cheley leaves to-morrow for Winnipeg, where he will enter the social work of the Salvation Army.

THE SOUTH EDMONTON BOYS want to play football on Good Friday. Nothing small about them; they are ready to play any team in Alberta.

NO crossing on the river. The mails will be taken over-night by pushing the boat, partly in water and partly on ice. A break is looked for at any time.

T. GRINDLEY, late of the firm of Lindow & Grindley, Fort Saskatchewan, has opened out the old stand lately occupied by Ross & Moret, Fort Saskatchewan.

C. GALLAGHER killed for Easter beef last week, two of the largest beasts ever slaughtered in the district, the combined weight of the two being 4050 pounds.

THE question is asked by many, will the stores be closed on Good Friday? In many places the board of trade calls a meeting and the merchants are waited on regarding it.

SERVICE will be held in All Saints' Episcopal church on Wednesday evening next at 8 p.m. The Rev. A. Stenden will deliver an address on the "The Communion."

THE COMMITTEE that are arranging sports here for the 24th of May, and the cricket club, contemplate having a grand public ball shortly after Easter, for the purpose of raising funds for prizes to be given on the 24th.

IN THE CASE of Wilson vs. Hewitt, that came up before Judge Scott at the last sitting of court here, the judge left the case for A. Taylor, clerk of the court, to decide. It has been pending here for three days. No decision given yet.

OBITUARY.

J. J. McINTYRE passed away this morning at 3 a.m., after a very short illness. He had not been feeling well for a few days previous to last Tuesday, but it was found necessary then for the deceased to have every attention. Everything possible was done, and he was, up till yesterday afternoon, improving so much that Mr. McDougall thought of taking him to his house for a change, but he became much worse during yesterday and suffered a great deal.

ABOUT three this morning pain seemed to have left him, and those who surrounded him say that he passed away as though he were sleeping. The deceased has lived in Edmonton about three years, during which time he has made many friends. A young man of exemplary habits, ready at any time to join any good cause and work for it. He was one of the organizers of the R. T. of T. Council here, and a lecture he delivered on temperance before the W. C. T. U. meeting only a short time ago, will show the interest he took in the organization. He was a member of the A. O. O. F. He also took an active part in all of the many sports. The deceased parent's reside in Regina. His bereaved mother, who has the sympathy of the whole community, is expected in on to-night's train.

THE RIVER DANGEROUS.

NO ONE is crossing the river with teams at present; although the ice is thick yet, it is in places very rotten. The river also having risen there is a channel at each edge. It is quite safe to walk across, but your feet might get wet getting on and off the ice.

THIS IS early for a break up, but not the earliest on record. Through the records kept by the meteorological officer, A. Taylor, we find that in 1885 the river was clear of ice at Fort Saskatchewan and Clover Bar on the 1st April, and cleared here from a jam on the 7th of April. Another early spring, although the ice did not clear so early, was in 1891. Wheat in that year was sown at Clover Bar on the 6th April, and was coming up on the 15th. Following are the dates of the ice breaking, and some of the peculiar ways it left the river since 1881. In the spring of that year, the ice ran out April 15th. In the year 1882, during March considerable rain fell, with thunder and lightning. The sleighing was all gone on the 2nd April, but it was not until the 22nd that the ice left the river. The spring of 1883 was considered early. Wheat was sown in many places on the 7th April. The ice broke up on the 11th and left the river on the 19th. In 1884 the river cleared in an unusual way. The ice left the centre clearing the channel right down the river and it was not until April 20th before it left the edges. Then came the early spring of 1885. Butterflies were around on the 5th of April. The river in many places cleared before that date, and all the ice gone on the 12th April. In 1887, on the 23rd, and in 1888, on the 24th of April. In 1889 the water was so low the ice could not run out, and stayed in the river until it melted. The first boats crossed that year on the 11th April. In 1890 the ice ran out on April 28th. On April 5th, 1891, teams had to stop crossing on the ice, but it was the 17th before the ice ran out. In 1892 the ice ran out on the 21st; in 1893 on the 24th, and in 1894 on the 15th April. Present indications are that the river will clear this year about the 12th instant.

N. W. SEPARATE SCHOOLS.

S. HUGHES, M. P., editor of Lindsay, Ont., Warder says editorially in his paper: "It is our intention during the coming session to again bring before the house and the country the question of the abolition of separate school in the Northwest Territories. Last session only two supported our position; but very many have since declared their conversion to our views. It is our hope that even Dalton McCarthy, who declared last session that he preferred separate schools to secular schools, may be another convert to our view. Our position also meets with the earnest approval of the best clergymen of Protestant denominations, while Archbishop Ireland, of Minnesota, likewise endorses the same view. Rev. Mr. Chambers, Methodist clergyman, two weeks ago preached a rousing sermon in Toronto in favor of our plan. The world progresses. We stand firmly in our course, improving and strengthening it wherever and whenever possible."

Edmonton Farmers . . .

Our Company have decided to erect during the coming summer an Oat Meal Mill and Elevator at South Edmonton. We would therefore call the attention of the Farmers to the importance of raising the best varieties of oats suitable for milling and for which the highest market price will be paid. We shall also require a limited quantity of choice Two-rowed Barley. We had made arrangements for making a shipment from the coast but find the same unnecessary as the best varieties can be secured from T. W. Lines, Edmonton.

EDMONTON BULLETIN, APRIL 8TH, 1895.

HOME RULERS AT CALGARY.

A meeting of the committee on provincial autonomy was held in Calgary last week. The chairman said a finance committee was certainly needed, for no advancement could be made without funds, and he called for suggestions.

Mr. Reilly thought the committee should wait on the city council and urge upon them the necessity of providing funds.

Major Walker said he had been north for a week and everywhere he found all the people very favorably disposed to provincial autonomy and wanting more information on the subject. He thought the M. L. A.'s of Alberta should be asked for contributions to the fund.

James Bannerman thought it would be useless to ask the M. L. A.'s for money, as most of them were opposed to the scheme, and he thought the first thing was to get Alberta united on the scheme. He said it was not likely that parliament at its last session would deal with the matter. He hoped that the constituency would be divided, and that we would have three members to urge the matter, and he hoped that some of them, at least, would be able to lay the case intelligently before the house.

Mr. Jones moved that a committee of five be named to prepare a letter for circulation in all parts of Alberta with the view of carrying out the object that was contemplated in the organization of this committee.

Mr. McCarter seconded the motion, and said that all we could hope to do would be to get parliament to submit the question for the voice of the people at the next general election.

Mr. Sifton moved the following resolution which was seconded and after a great deal of discussion carried.

That this committee authorize the secretary to correspond with electors in each polling sub-division in the proposed province of Alberta, requesting the election of a delegate therefrom to meet in Calgary on the 15th day of May next, to take into consideration the formation of a province, and take such steps as said meeting consider advisable towards preparing such legislation as may be suitable, and securing passage of same, and also to suggest to the government a proper division of Alberta in regard to representation in the Dominion house.

The Ottawa correspondent of the Toronto Mail and Empire says: Representations have, it is understood, been received from persons in Alberta urging upon the government the propriety of conferring provincial autonomy upon the district. They are the result of a meeting recently held in Calgary, which was attended by settlers from the surrounding district. As the most westerly of the Territories Alberta extends to the Rockies and is very progressive. Its area is greater than that of any of the older provinces except Ontario, Quebec, and British Columbia, covering, as it does, 106,100 square miles of land and water. The advocates of provincial autonomy claim that Alberta has a population of 40,000, though the census places it much below that figure, but it was taken four years ago. As to the financial part of the scheme, the Albertans are confident that it will prove immensely to their advantage. At present, according to their estimate, only $30,000 a year is spent in the territory, whereas it is figured that as a province they would have a claim upon the Federal treasury approaching nearly half a million dollars. Home rule for Alberta is being made a political cry, which in Alberta is quite popular. From information received here it seems that Premier Haultain's attitude is unfavorable to the movement at present, for he is of the opinion that this is not the time when any portion of the Territories should desire to assume the burden of provincial government. In the eastern part of Canada the mistake of having too much government has been inherited, and the question to be considered shortly is whether Alberta's claim is not one which, if acted upon, would mean a similar blunder in the west. The demand made is that the matter be acted upon at this session of parliament, but that appears to be one that can hardly be acceded to.

THE NORTHERN TRAIN SERVICE.

"Packed in like sardines," was the first salutation The Herald received on the C. P. R. platform this morning as the Edmonton train was making up, from a well-known traveller who was going north. "Yes said the Herald, "immigration is setting in good style, and the C. P. R. will soon have to put on three trains a week to accommodate the incoming settlers." "It would be better," returned he, "if the C. P. R. were to look after the comfort of their travellers a little better than they do. Just think of it! Five cents a mile on this branch, and the accommodation about 5th class, as compared with that on the main line. Just look in there and tell me where a man is going to get a seat, and come to the door and see how sweet and fresh the air is in those coaches" he rattled away. "Now on the Prince Albert branch," he continued, "where the business is not to be compared with that done on this line, the accommodation is much better, and one can be sure of a seat and fresh air." "All aboard!" cried the conductor, and the traveller was just in time to get standing room on the platform. —Calgary Herald.

OPPOSED TO FEMALE VOTES.

Chicago, April 2.—There is an Anti-Suffrage society of women in Chicago. It is of recent birth, but the infant lusty, and indications point to a squally time in the near future. An oratorical contest between its president and Susan B. Anthony, at Central Music hall, is on the programme. Mrs. Alice Houghton, president of the Anti-Suffrage society, is a warm friend of Miss Anthony, but promises to demolish her in open debate. Mrs. Houghton was seen at her law office yesterday. "Yes," she said, "I am going to make a crusade against the suffragists. I do it in behalf of the sensible, sound-minded women of my sex. We are tired of this misrepresentation by the few. Millions of women do not want the ballot. I have been in business nearly all my life, and I know if women had been trown in with politicians as I have been they would not cry for equal rights. It is the greatest curse that can come to us. I have lived in Washington state where woman clamored for suffrage. At the end of two years they begged that it be taken away from them. Let equal suffrage go into effect in Chicago for one year, and every dissolute woman will vote, but few of the respectable ones. Great majorities will be rolled up for hooded aldermen." Miss E. S. Hasley, who is secretary of the Anti-Suffrage society, said: This equal rights fad has been mothered by the W. C. T. U. fanatics. Respectable women will never take part in politics, but adventuresses will gobble the offices. Let women be content with the schools. The instinct of maternity fits them as teachers of children, but not as politicians."

AGAINST ALBERTA.

The people of Alberta want to have their territory erected into a province. There are barely as many people in Alberta as there are in some wards of Montreal. Therequest of the Albertans is decidedly premature. A province sending one member to parliament would be smiled at even by little P. E. Island.—Free Press

St. Petersburg, April 2.—A telegram received here from a Chinese source says that the bad weather, the sickness among the Japanese troops and the overflow of the rivers have rendered a continuance of the war extremely difficult. It is added that this produced a favorable effect upon the peace negotiations, but the hope of a speedy conclusion of peace are weakened by the Japanese demand for the cession of a portion of Manchuria, a war indemnity of 700,000 yen, and pending full payment of this indemnity, that Pekin be occupied by the Japanese troops.

ELECTION ADDRESS.

To the electors of Alberta.

GENTLEMEN.—As the nominee of the convention of Alberta liberals which was held recently at Calgary, and having been assured of a strong support by the patrons of industry in Northern Alberta, as well as at the solicitation of a large number of independent conservatives in this part of the country, I have the honor to offer myself as a candidate for the representation of Alberta in the Commons at the approaching general election. The stand which I take with the full knowledge and consent of those who have tendered me their support is that of an independent as to party, but not as to principle. On the main question at present at issue between the liberal and conservative parties, I understand that the organizations and individuals tendering me their support have done so with the wish and expectation that I would and will so far as lies in my power support the policy of a tariff for revenue as against the policy of a tariff for protection, which is the declared policy of the present government; on the ground that the protective policy discriminates unjustly against the western producer in favor of the eastern manufacturer.

Although holding strongly with the liberal party and also the patron organization on this point, I have not bound myself to either of these because I believe that the first duty of the single representative of so great a country holding such great possibilities as this district of Alberta should be to use his every energy for the further development of this country and the realization of these possibilities; as he can not if he is to be subject to restraint by the exigencies of any party. This constituency has had party representation during the past eight years,—has been represented by a member of the party in power then and now. If the results have been satisfactory, that principle should be continued. If not it should be changed. It is because I believe that this system of party representation has been gravely injurious to this district that I have consented to make the personal sacrifice involved in my candidature, and because, so far as I knew, no other person was likely to come forward to advocate these or like views.

In a region so vast and varied as Alberta it would be impossible for any man at any time to decide all the points of policy that would affect each locality, therefore I do not attempt to do so here. I hope from time to time, however, in the course of the contest, to have the opportunity to discuss fully with the electors at most of the principal centres of population, all matters that may come up for discussion, in whatever shape they may appear. That such a vast region, having such a large population and such important interests should be accorded only one representative is as plain a case of injustice as is required to show the glaring failure of party representation to secure the people in even their simplest rights. The matter of railway extension and railway rates particularly in the north and the question of irrigation in the south seem to be the great questions affecting the interests of the district with which parliament will from time to time have to deal. I need not point out that while these are vital questions to Alberta, they are not party questions at all, and it is all the more necessary that your representative should be in a position to advocate your interests in regard to them in parliament without party hindrance even if he has to do it without party support.

Speaking generally I may say that I will support a policy of development for Alberta and while I will not bind myself to ask for favors for any section or interest I will bind myself to do all in my power to see that each section and every interest receives fair and equal treatment.

In conclusion I will say that although I have no personal interest to serve or ambition to gratify by entering upon this contest, yet having entered upon it in good faith I shall do all I can to win, and ask for the active assistance of every man who believes that the success of the principles which I have been selected to advocate would be in the interest of this constituency and of the country.

Respectfully yours,

FRANK OLIVER.

Dated at Edmonton this 14th day of March, A.D. 1895.

Signed, D. L. SCOTT, Judge Supreme Court.

WETASKIWIN.

R. C. Wyld is registered at the Walker House.

Mr. Norman, of Duhamel, is staying at the Queen's.

Mr. Boyce, our general host, drove Mr. Oliver to Lacombe.

W. Taaffe, of Winnipeg, is in town. He went to Duhamel from here.

P. Hogan has removed out on his place after spending winter in town.

L. C. Owens, of Minneapolis, is in town. He intends starting business here.

The question of a cemetery for the Protestant community is being raised and a committee formed.

R. Edwards, of Pretty Hills, is a guest of the Walker House. His sketches and drawings are clear.

Mr. Reid, of Beaver Lake, returned home last week from a visit here. He reports everything lovely there.

Mr. Compton is contemplating building a large building on Main street, the coming spring. May many more follow.

Mr. Anderson is still shipping hay. Mr. Boyce & Anderson have done a good trade this winter in the hay business.

J. Albright has moved into his new quarters on Main street, which no doubt makes it more convenient for the public.

A new industry is to be established here, one of our new arrivals being about to open out in the beer and porter bottling business.

Wednesday night the first prairie fire of the year was visible ten or twelve miles east of the town. This is unusually early.

Dr. Sharpe was called by Police Phillips, of Duhamel, to go to Pretty Hill, on the shooting accident that occurred there recently.

The snow is going fast here and some of our farmers intend seeding on Monday 8th. A continuance of the present fine weather will make seeding general within a week.

Tuesday last we had a small fire scare, the roof of Mr. Gibb's house catching fire from a faulty stovepipe. Thanks to T. Anderson's energy, the fire was subdued before any damage resulted.

Frank Oliver held a very successful meeting Tuesday evening. A larger number were present, and seemingly were much impressed with Mr. Oliver's platform, which we hope will be the case later on.

Further improvement in Mr. Gould's store is in contemplation. His warehouse is nearing completion under the management of R. McMillan. From here Mr. McMillan goes to build a bridge across the dangerous Pipestone. A long felt want.

Another interesting case is coming before our J. P's, this day, Friday, against Mr. Hamilton for cruelty to animals. Many are interested in the decisions of the J. P's, hoping to put a stop to the seemingly cruelty, which is daily inflicted.

Our town is still holding her own as Mr. Morrows said Sunday evening. Two gentlemen were commenting on the different places on the road. Of course Peace Hills and Wetaskiwin were mentioned and their peaceful disposition noted as the place where everyone was "chewing the rag."

The lots on Pearce street facing the C. P. R. depot are rapidly being filled. A new barber shop on the north side is established. The old drug store lately occupied by Mr. Smith has been taken by Miss Cameron as a milliner store, while Mr. West proposes to bring his house and store from Duhamel and range it alongside.

The Episcopal church has obtained lot 12, block 8 for the erection of its building. The ground is prepared and a stone foundation is being put in. It will be 36x22 with a cruciform transept of the same dimensions. An elegant tower and spire will rise from the southwest corner. The tower 16 feet surrounded by cupola 10 feet over which the spire will rise 24 feet, in all 50 feet.

While digging a cellar on the site of the new hotel about to be erected by B. F. Boyce, of the Walker House, laborer came upon a somewhat interesting find, in the shape of an earthenware jar. This vessel, which was globular in form, contained a number of old coins, but barely decipherable owing to rust and verdigris. Around the rim of the goblet, however, was an inscription, presumably in Spanish and perfectly legible, which read as follows: "Iti sapio spota bona." Coin collectors or curiosity hunters can receive further information regarding this matter from Mr. Boyce, who has the urn in his possession.

On Tuesday evening our school house was fairly filled when Frank Oliver held forth on the burning political questions of the day. The injustice of the government were from a liberal point of view—clearly defined and condemned. The speaker explained his position as an independent liberal candidate and declared his unalterable opposition to the N. P. and his ardent desire to do his part in sweeping away the existing tariff, which he declared existed only for the benefit of the manufacturers at the cost of the masses. The address was fairly well received by an attentive audience, many of whom were conservatives. A vote of thanks was accorded Mr. Oliver at the close of the meeting and later in the evening a committee was appointed to further his interests in the coming election.

Our town was noticeably full of people one day last week, when horse riding seemingly was booming, no less than a dozen mounts were parading our streets, among whom were two lady riders, of no mean abilities. It looked like down south on a morning on the round up. After the riders had dispersed some fancy riding took place by J. Moriarity and Billy Brown. However, Mr. Moriarity's horse thought it better not to "kick against the pick," and took matters rather mild. Billy was not to be rid of that notion. Several attempts had previously been made to ride him, but it was a stand off and was generally conceded that for Wetaskiwin he was unridable. However Billy donned the spurs and mounted him, after several efforts of resistance. When on, he seemingly enjoyed the ride as much as the spectators, (who no doubt never saw a bucking horse before) and rode him straight up in spite of the horses furious pitching, all the time giving vent to shouts and whipping the horse with his sombrero. After some time, of fun for the public, Billy had an idea of going for a ride, but instead, although early in the season, the horse began pitching again and Billy, horse, and all went head long in the ditch along the railroad track, which was about four feet deep and full of ice and water. After several unsuccessful attempts to rid himself of his rider he was let up and before he was out of the water Billy was on him again and rode him to a finish much to the enjoyment of the spectators. No doubt Billy rides with the best of them. He rode for the last two years for Frank Hamilton of this place.

LEDUC GLEANINGS.

M. Barrett has been appointed government land guide, vice John King resigned.

Four more cars of settlers' effects came in on Monday's train, one for Mr. A. Paton and one for Mr. Fogg, the other two were for two Germans from Manitoba. All have settled west.

Frank Oliver delivered an able address to the voters of Leduc last Monday night, all were enthusiastically interested. He lost over half the crowd by being about half an hour late of the set time.

The section men are loading a car of our model soil for Mr. Niblock's garden at Medicine Hat. Of course it is rich soil he is after or he would not come to Leduc for it. The homesteaders here in a short while will be selling their quarters by the cubic yard instead of by the acre. Leduc of late years has been very unjustly censured by the hands of its jealous neighboring villages as being unsuitable for settlers, but those interested in the place have been giving them all the rope they want. Laboring much on the policy, that the proof of the pudding is in the eating, and that the place would in time prove them fabricators by the production of bountiful crops, which it certainly has done. The only true advertisement for a country is for the intended settlers to come in in midsummer when the crops are in their height of bloom and see with his own naked eye its productive qualities. This is the way and only way that Leduc has been advertised. Land seekers shun that dark eyed fabricator; if you want crops come this way.
